

Assignment :- 5

Q1 Find 10 server errors with description.

- 1) The HTTP 302 Found redirect status response code indicates that the resource requested has been temporary moved to the URL given by the location header.
- 2) The HTTP 303 Found see other redirect status response code indicates that the redirects don't link to the request resource itself but to another page such as confirmation page a real word project.
- 3) HTTP 307 temporary Redirectly redirect status response code indicates that resource requested has been temporary moved to the URL given by location header.
- 4) The http 401 unauthorized response status code indicate that the client request has not been completed because it lacks valid authentication for requested resource.
- 5) The http 410 Gone client error response code indicates that access to the target resource is no longer available.
- 6) The http 451 unavailable for legal reasons client error response code indicated that the request common a resource that is not available.

8) The Http Range not statistical be error response code indicate that the server is not ready to handle the request common course are a server that is down for maintenance.

9) The http 416 Range statistical error response code indicates that the server can't server the request ranges.

10) The http 301 moved permanently redirect status response code indicate that the request resource has been definitively moved to the url given location headers.